4. Data Protection Policy

1. We will store personal data about you. This may include your name, address, e-mail address, phone number, date of birth and any medical information that you share with us that is relevant to your ability to practise yoga.
2. We will store this personal data in electronic format. We will ask you to complete a registration form on paper, but this will be scanned and stored on our computers. The paper copy will be destroyed as soon as possible. The computer accounts that this information is stored under will have strong passwords. The computers that hold the data will have up-to-date anti-virus software installed.
3. We will not share this information with anyone or any organisation except for medical professionals (doctors, nurses, paramedics, etc.), or the police, in the event of an emergency where you are involved.
4. We will never share your personal information with any third party for sales or marketing purposes.
5. We may use your contact information to let you know about upcoming classes / workshops, any changes to our services or any changes to our terms and conditions.

5. Charges

1. The current charges for classes and workshops are available on the web site: <http://www.ftgyoga.com>

6. Free Class Cards

1. FTG Yoga may, from time to time, offer a free class to any individual by giving that person a Free Class Card.
2. Free Class Cards can only be exchanged for one yoga class run by FTG Yoga.
3. A Free Class Card must be surrendered to the instructor at the start of the class.
4. A Free Class Card has no monetary value.
5. The class must be booked in advance via the FTG Yoga web site.

7. Multi-Class Cards

1. Multi-class cards are available, offering a per class discount over the single class charge. This is our way of saying a little thank you to our regular students.
2. Multi-class cards are available in multiples of 4 or 6 credits. The equivalent class price is discounted on a sliding scale depending on the number of classes pre-purchased. The current charges for the multi-class cards are shown on the web site: <http://www.ftgyoga.com>
3. One credit pays for one class.
4. You must present the multi-class card at the start of each class. The date of the class will be marked in one of the spare spaces to indicate that one of the class credits has been used.
5. If you have a multi-class card but are unable to present it at class, then we will ask you to pay the standard drop in charge.
6. If a multi-class card is lost we will try to issue a new card with the remaining class credits based on the data that we hold, however, there is no guarantee that we will be able to do this if we do not have a record of the credits that have been used. Please keep your card safe.
7. If, for any reason, we are unable to continue running classes and you have unused credits on a multi-class card then you will be entitled to a refund of the unused credits at the pro-rata rate.

8. Female Students

1. The school that the FTG Yoga teachers trained with advises female students not to practise inversions when they have their period. We echo this advice. However, there are arguments for / against and we encourage you to research these arguments to be able to make your own decision. This article provides some further information: <https://yogainternational.com/article/view/is-it-safe-to-practice-inversions-during-menstruation1>
Any part of the class is entirely optional. If you wish to practise a pose other than an inversion, then please ask the instructor for guidance.
